

Wednesday, April 08, 2015

Another win for Atana !

Atana Musandam Resort Wins Hospitality Project of the Year Awards

The Atana Musandam Resort, has won the 'Hospitality Project of the Year' award at the Construction Week Oman Awards that took place at the Grand Hyatt Muscat recently. The multi-award winning resort was also shortlisted in the Sustainable Project of the Year category. The 'Hospitality Project of the Year' award recognition adds to the growing number of awards and accolades received by the resort since its soft opening in 2014.

The glittering Construction Week Oman Awards ceremony was held recently in partnership with The Big Show, Oman's largest construction exhibition, and provides a platform to showcase and recognise the highest quality of works achieved within Oman's construction industry over the prior year. The Atana Musandam resort received the 'Hospitality Project of the Year' award for its best practice credentials, safety initiatives, use of innovative techniques and technology and significance in the hospitality sector.

Commenting on receiving the award, , Eng. Wael Al Lawati said, "The Hospitality Project of the Year award is yet another proud addition to Atana Musandam's growing number of awards, certifications and recognitions. This achievement goes beyond the walls of Atana Musandam, as it reflects Omran's ongoing commitment to develop the highest quality hospitality destinations and ensure sustainable operations in the tourism industry. This award is a positive motivation that pushes us forward for more developmental achievements that are based on the highest criteria for hospitality,"

"The Atana Musandam resort is a welcome addition to hospitality offering in the Sultanate, a sector that has been gaining significant ground over the past couple of years. Hospitality and tourism play a key role in diversified and sustainable economic development for the nation, and quality destinations such as Atana Musandam are vital in supporting the development and improvement of these sectors." added Wael.

The Atana Musandam resort is managed by the National Omani Hospitality Company, an Omran subsidiary company, and Atana is the first 'home grown' hospitality brand to be established in Oman. Pascal Eppink, comments, "To be recognized by the Construction Week Oman Awards is a great honour for the newly established Atana brand. Atana Musandam is a real success story for Oman and a wonderful destination for visitors both from at home and abroad. By implementing the highest quality hospitality standards at Atana Musandam, we ensure the maximum operational efficiency of the resort and progress in the sector for years to come."